

Nathan and Ingrid Kensey

Nathan and Ingrid Kensey live in Canberra and have been married for six years. They have two children, Greta and Bede. Ingrid is a General Practitioner with a particular passion for palliative care and life issues. Nathan is a government lawyer. Nathan, a 'cradle Catholic', and Ingrid, who converted to Catholicism in 2015, have been involved in a number of ministries over the years, including prison ministry, involvement in the L'Arche Community, and youth and young adult ministry. Nathan and Ingrid are also members of the Disciples of Jesus Covenant Community.

Australian content produced by

