INTRODUCTION

Sport or 'competitive play' is present in all cultures. Australians pride themselves on a being 'a sporting nation'.

Sport is a human good affirming both talent and limitation which we rejoice in and learn from. "How can the Church not be interested in sport?" (Pope Pius XII, 1945).

The Church has always engaged with sport. St Paul used sporting analogies to illustrate progress in a virtuous life (1 Corinthians 9:24-27). This echoed Jesus' call to fullness of life (John 10:10). Our original dignity as a body, mind and soul unity was disfigured by the first sin, then restored in Jesus Christ. Christian faith is both a noun and a verb. It is manifest in love of God and neighbour and is our founded hope for eternal life in Christ. Living in faith, hope and love grounds and perfects the cardinal human virtues which sport encourages, namely, prudence (choosing to do the 'right thing'), justice (affording others their due), fortitude (constancy under challenge) and temperance (mastery over our instincts) (Catechism of the Catholic Church, n. 1804-1832). Living a 'good life' is also nurtured (or not) through our aspirations, opportunities and imagination, and above all in our relationships. Sport both reveals and shapes character. Moreover, and foundational to our journey as a pilgrim people in Christ – “the Way, the Truth and the Life” (John 14:6) – is our renewal through the Sacraments and personal prayer. Encountering Christ leads to discipleship and mission, and sport is a rich field for evangelisation.

The Church is clear that sport has great potential to contribute to the development of the individual and to a more harmonious society. Pope Paul VI, in an address to cyclists in 1964, said the Church “sees in sport a gymnasium of the spirit... and because of this it admires, approves, and encourages the practice of sport in its various forms”. The Second Vatican Council’s Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, Gaudium et Spes (1965), hoped that increasing leisure time would see sport help “fortify the health of soul and body... and to establish fraternal relations among men of all conditions, nations and races” (n. 61). Pope John Paul II, a keen sportsman in his younger days, told a gathering of sports leaders in 1979: “Sport has in itself an important moral and educative significance: it is a training ground of virtue”. Speaking to children in 2014, Pope Francis said: “I invite you not only to play, like you already do, but there is something more: challenge yourself in the game of life like you are in the game of sports. Challenge yourself in the quest for good, in both Church and society, without fear, with courage and enthusiasm”. Little wonder our schools constantly affirm sports as part of an integral education for life.

Draw on the prayers and reflections that follow to see sport as an encounter with the One who calls all into new life.

A-LEAGUE - MACARTHUR FC

*“Every morning I start the day in prayer and end my day in the same way.
I pray the Rosary every day.
It gives me peace
and helps me centre my life on Christ.
In a professional sporting environment
there are good times and many bad times but prayer helps me focus on what’s important and allows me to give thanks and glory to Our Lord every day.”*

ORDER FOR THE BLESSING OF AN ATHLETIC EVENT

This blessing is intended for those who participate in an athletic event. The blessing asks that God may protect the athletes from injury and that throughout the event they may show respect for one another.

The blessing may be given by a priest, deacon, or a lay minister.

ORDER OF BLESSING

All make the sign of the cross as the minister says:

- ▶ Blessed be the name of the Lord.

All reply:

- ▶ Now and for ever.

One of those present or the minister reads a text of sacred Scripture, for example:

- ▶ Brothers and sisters, listen to the words of the second letter of Paul to Timothy (4:6-8):
- ▶ As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

Or: 1 Corinthians 9:24-27 - We win a crown that is imperishable.

PRAYER OF BLESSING

A minister who is a priest or deacon says the prayer of blessing with hands outstretched over the athletes; a lay minister says the prayer with hands joined.

- ▶ Strong and faithful God,
as we come together for this contest,
we ask you to bless these athletes.

Keep them safe from injury and harm, instil in them respect for each other,
and reward them for their perseverance.

Lead us all to the rewards of your kingdom
where you live and reign for ever and ever.

- ▶ R. Amen.

have always gone hand-in-hand.
I believe that God gave me a talent to run and that when I run, I give glory to Him.
Of course, I want to win but when things don’t go to plan,
I know I’m loved and there is more to this life.
For me, prayer is connecting with God through music,
quiet time, Mass and the Rosary.”*

PRAYERS BEFORE A MATCH

PRAYER FOR ATHLETES

Gracious God,
we give thanks for the gift of our bodies,
for the ability to run, walk, jump,
swim, catch and throw.

We pray for patience and discipline,
that we may learn the joy of mastering new skills:
achieving success, and cheerfully bearing failure
in the company of others.

We pray that our relationships be enriched
through the friendships we form.
May we learn to include others across borders of language, colour, gender and religion.

We pray that we care for others.
May we especially look out for those who are differently abled,
and those often left on the boundaries.

Through our vigilance
may we always play fair,
and ensure that no one is abused or exploited.

We ask this through Jesus your Son. Amen.

PRAYER TO BLESSED PIER GIORGIO FRASSATI

Mountain-climber and skier, horseback rider and swimmer,
cyclist and hiker -
you loved the challenge of sports,
Blessed Pier Giorgio!

Teach me to put all my athletic skill
into proper perspective:
to take time “to contemplate
the greatness of the Creator
in the pure air” as I play, always remembering that athletes “have the duty of putting our health at the service of those who do not have it, for to act otherwise would be to betray that gift of God”.
Amen.

“During the game, when you are out on the pitch, you display beauty, generosity and camaraderie. If a match lacks these qualities it loses force, even if the team wins.”

PRAYERS AFTER A MATCH

PRAYER IN DEFEAT

Composed by Stephen Lawrence

Thank you, Lord, for the opportunity to participate in this match.
May we learn from the loss and become better next time.
May we keep our eyes on you sweet as victory is, service of others and abiding in you are far more important.

Amen.

Stephen played for Hawthorn in the Australian Football League (AFL) from 1988 to 1998. He is a husband and father of six children.

“Every Christian is called to become a strong athlete of Christ, that is, a faithful and courageous witness to his Gospel. But to succeed in this, he must persevere in prayer, be trained in virtue and follow the divine Master in everything.”

PRAYERS FOR COACHES

PRAYER FOR GUIDANCE

Composed by Fr Paul Crotty

Lord, heavenly Father, giver of gifts human and divine,
guide leaders and coaches to discover the skills and talents of those in their care.
Give them the words and example to inspire the young to participate in sport and to develop their human qualities in an environment that is safe and encouraging to all.
Moved by the Holy Spirit, I ask this with confidence in the name of your only Son, Jesus Christ.
Amen.

of youth who are lifeless, marked by sadness and negative experiences, you can be for them, wise friends, expert guides and coaches, not only on the playing field, but also along those paths that lead to a finish line of the true values of life.”*

POPE JOHN PAUL II, ADDRESS TO THE DIRECTORS AND PLAYERS
OF THE ITALIAN SOCCER TEAM MILAN, 12 MAY 1979

PRAYER FOR GRACE-FILLED LEADERSHIP

Composed by Marci Oringo-Vos

Lord God, as I strive to coach this team well,
I ask that you give me the grace to be able to do so.
Let me be able to set strong goals, that as a team
we may achieve and grow.

Give me the capacity to develop alongside them and to be always ready to learn something new.

As I lead, teach me how to empower each member of my team.

Show me how to put the good of all above my own glory.

Regardless of victory or defeat,
may I maintain a positive attitude towards my athletes, acknowledging their efforts and recognising that,
in areas where they may have fallen short,
there lies not a failure but an opportunity for growth.

Be in my words, Lord;
show me how to communicate and lead effectively.
Teach me how to be an authentic witness to them.

Let me follow your example, to “wash feet”, to stand up for what is right and to be just in my decisions.

And at the end of the day, Lord, I entrust them to you,
asking that you draw them closer to yourself.

Amen.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Composed by Fr Steve Ardill

God of life, you give us games, sports and recreation
to care for our bodies, recreate ourselves anew,
and to grow in relationship with you and one another.

I thank you for the opportunities I've been given and the abundant joy I've experienced as an official.

Help me to always remember that I am only a servant of the game.
With your help, may I strive to always witness enthusiastically to my faith, be the best decision-maker I can be and humbly admit my mistakes.

May my interactions with the participants always be respectful.
May I contribute positively to the creation of a safe playing environment and the enjoyment of the players, team officials and spectators.

And, at the final whistle, may I exit the field
knowing that I've given my all for the game and most importantly for your greater glory.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

OUR FATHER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come, thy will be done

as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.

HAIL MARY

Hail, Mary, full of grace,
the Lord is with thee.

THE APOSTLES CREED

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

HAIL, HOLY QUEEN

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.
To thee do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn then, most gracious advocate,
thine eyes of mercy toward us,
and after this our exile
show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

SCRIPTURE ON SPORT

Using the Bible to pray can be a great way to connect with the messages in the Scriptures. This requires reading and re-reading Scripture passages and spending time in reflection and prayer.

Below are some passages from the Bible that are particularly relevant for athletes. You may like to reflect on and pray with these passages.

Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

1 Corinthians 3:16-17

Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Do you not know that in a race the runners all compete, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win it. Athletes exercise self-control in all things; they do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable one. So I do not run aimlessly, nor do I box as though beating the air; but I punish my body and enslave it, so that after proclaiming to others I myself should not be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 9:24-27

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus. Let those of us then who are mature be of the same mind; and if you think differently about anything, this too God will reveal to you.

Philippians 3:12-15

But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

1 Timothy 6:11-12

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

2 Timothy 4:6-8

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us.

Hebrews 12:1

Lord Jesus Christ, help these athletes to be your friends and witnesses to your love. Help them to put the same effort into personal asceticism that they do into sports; help them to achieve a harmonious and cohesive unity of body and soul.

May they be sound models to imitate for all who admire them. Help them always to be athletes of the spirit, to win your inestimable prize: an imperishable crown that lasts forever. Amen!
